PRIVATE INVESTIGATION ACADEMY W/ SPONSORSHIP HANOVER, MARYLAND
30 JANUARY 2023 TO 03 FEBRUARY 2023

Lynx Security Group is pleased to announce that we will be conducting a Private Investigation Academy in Hanover, Maryland, from 30 January 2023 to 03 February 2023. This Program of Instruction has been specifically designed for aspiring private investigators to enter the field and current private investigators needing a skills refresher. This training program provides the necessary foundational skills to work in the private investigation industry. All instructors are current or former private investigators, intelligence officers, law enforcement, or specialized skill instructors such as an attorney. This course is in-person, requires a minimum of 10 students, and is limited to 20 students.

TASKS TRAINED: Fundamentals of Private Investigation, Private Investigation Law Investigative Interviewing, Physical Surveillance & Investigative Photography, Investigative Research, Report Writing, Courtroom Testimony, and much more.

REQUIRED TOOLS: As this course combines in the field and classroom instruction, various items must be brought to the academy. Each student must have an automobile with current insurance, registration, and a valid driver's license. Each student must also have a smartphone that can download applications. Each student must also bring a laptop or tablet. Finally, each student must bring a non-cell phone camera (DSLR or mirrorless camera) with them.

TUITION: Tuition for this academy is $997. This rate is inclusive of taxes and other fees. Full payment in the form of an agency purchase order, cashier's check, money order, cash, or credit/debit card (American Express, Discover, Visa, or MasterCard) must be received by Lynx Security Group at least five (5) working days before the first day of class. A special discounted hotel room rate is available to accommodate out of the area travelers. For those interested in the referral program for reduced tuition, contact edward@lynxsecuritygroup.com for more information.

TIME & LOCATION: The academy location will be 7539 Teague Rd, Hanover, MD 21076. The practical exercises will occur in a classroom environment and in the field throughout the area. The class starts at 8 AM each day with a break for lunch. The lunch period and the end time will vary based on the training day.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Students must be U.S. citizens. Students will leave with written materials that will aid them in their future endeavors and a certificate of training or attendance. Limited equipment is available to be loaned out. Students who earn a certificate of training are eligible for sponsorship, so they can start soliciting private investigation cases aside from the case opportunities provided to them. There are no refunds once you reserve a training course slot. Contact Lynx at the below mediums for more information.
